The Delaware Women's Chorus Concert Sunday, June 1 at 4:00 pm - Potluck to follow

Welcome the month of June with a special concert by the Delaware Women's Chorus, under the direction of Joanne Ward. Joanne is a dear friend of our church who plays in our Celebration Ringers hand bell choir and donates her talents as part of our summer special music. The Delaware Women's Chorus is a diverse group of women coming together for two hours once a week for the sole purpose of improving their own vocal technique and creating something beautiful. The concert at 4:00 pm at our Meeting House will be followed by a pot-luck supper in the Fellowship Hall. Please sign up by May 29th in the Fellowship Hall and indicate what dish you hope to bring! Bring or send lots of food! We need to provide enough extra for 60 singers/families. And as always, bring a friend along!

Nominating Committee Report 2014

The congregation of New Castle Presbyterian Church meets June 1 after worship for its annual meeting. We will consider the following report from the Nominating Committee. Nominations will also be received from the floor. Other business will also be entertained at the will of the congregation.

SESSION Class of 2017:

Lindy Ballance: I started attending New Castle Presbyterian Church as a young boy, probably about 5 or 6 years old. I remember when Rev Johnson was starting his tenure and made friends with his twin sons Ted & Dan. Reverend Johnson also was one of our speakers at our High School graduation in 1976 at William Penn. I went to Sunday school all the way through high school, pretty much left for awhile, attending services every once in awhile. I again started attending regularly in 2000 and have pretty much attended church every Sunday I could, becoming a member I think in 2001 or 2002. As to my background, I have been married to my wife Sandy for 32 years who attends church with me quite often. I have two daughters Beth, who still lives in the New Castle area, and works with Rommel HD of Smyrna as a bookkeeper. Our other daughter Nicole, is a senior at the University of Delaware studying to be a High School English teacher. Nicole has been student teaching at McKean High School this semester and will graduate May 31, also works part time as a page at the New Castle library. We hope she gets a job in the area soon after graduation. I work in the purchasing department of Aquaflo Pump & Supply, responsible for supplying several branches on the east coast of assorted pumps, irrigation equipment, and plumbing supplies. Our family lives in the New Castle area and thankfully have many members of both our families nearby too. My hobbies include Bass fishing, surf fishing, UD football, the Phillies, & Eagles along with yard work which never ends. I will be honored to serve. (Lindy has just completed a three-year term on the Session)

Andrew Lundgren: A resident of Delaware since 2003, Andrew joined NCPC in 2010. Andrew is a member of the Delaware bar and is vice president and in-house counsel for National Corporate Research, Ltd., a New York-based corporation services company. Before joining NCR, Andrew was a litigation attorney at the Wilmington law firm of Young Conaway Stargatt & Taylor, LLP, and, before that, a law clerk to Chief Justice Myron T. Steele of the Delaware Supreme Court. Andrew holds degrees from Harvard University, Brooklyn Law School, and the University of Pennsylvania. He and his wife Laura, along with their children Cora, Allie, and Julia, live in Greenville. Andrew has just completed a three-year term on the Session.

Conchita Showell: I was born, raised and educated in Philadelphia, PA. I worked at IBM Corporation for 23 years, 6 divisions, 5 states, and 10 jobs in staff and management positions before retirement. After a very long absence from church membership, I joined the Heritage Fellowship United Church of Christ in Reston, VA where I ultimately served as a trustee. I also served on the Board of Directors for Reston Interfaith, an organization somewhat like Friendship House providing temporary shelter, transitioning housing and other services for the homeless. I moved to Delaware at the end of 2004 to be closer to my mother. I have been pleased to have found a warm church family that has allowed me to be active in the service of helping others. (Conchita has just completed a three-year term on the Session)

Ray Snyder: Born and raised in suburban Philadelphia of two college educated parents, one a veterinarian and the other a school teacher. Attended St. Peter's Episcopal Church and choir school. Baptized and confirmed and married at St. Peter's. Traveled extensively around the U.S. while growing up and traveled the world serving in the military. Spent a total of six and one half years on active duty but no combat time. Worked for thirty-two years for Sunoco in Philadelphia. Have been a volunteer firefighter for forty-four years and still belong to Wilmington Manor Fire Co. After serving a third term as Commandant of the General Thomas Holcomb (New Castle native) Detachment of the Marine Corps League, I am now beginning my second term as Senior Vice Commandant of the Department (State) of Delaware. I volunteer on the Wilmington & Western Railroad and collect O gauge model trains. Ride a bike when the weather is nice but have never gone more than about twenty miles. Used to ride a motorcycle but have become wise enough to give that up for good. Enjoy time with my wife, children and grandchildren. One son, two daughters and three granddaughters. Like most types of music and love to read. Drifted away from the church in my middle years but found something was missing. Visited extensively to various denominations and parishes and found something at New Castle Presbyterian that made me feel comfortable and at home. (Ray has just completed a three-year term on the Session)

DEACONS Class of 2016:

Cynthia Robbins: Cynthia, a professor of Sociology and Criminal Justice, is on a pre-retirement sabbatical leave after teaching 25 years at the University of Delaware. She joined New Castle Presbyterian Church along with her husband Steve Martin and their daughter, Katie Robbins Martin, in April 2000. She has served as deacon, elder, member of the Evangelism and Outreach committee, Spirit of Christmas committee, and Easter Fair committee, and has taught Children's Church, Sunday School, and Vacation Bible School. She also helps with Emmanuel Dining Room and Meals on Wheels. (Cynthia has previously served as a deacon and as a ruling elder)

DEACONS Class of 2017:

Jennifer Dunham: Jennifer was born in South Jersey and moved to Delaware while in the fourth grade. She joined New Castle Presbyterian Church in September 1990 and participated in Sunday School, youth group, bible study, choir, childcare during church, and choir practice, and served as an usher. Jen earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Finance from the University of Delaware in 2002. She has spent the last 12 years working for the Federal government as a Financial Management Analyst with the U.S. General Services Administration in Philadelphia. She has recently re-joined the choir and enjoys participating in church activities. In her free time, Jennifer enjoys reading, walking, watching movies, and spending time with family. She lives in Newark with her dog Remington "Remmie."

Patti Isaacs-Hansen: Patti grew up in Huntington, WV and completed a bachelor degree in chemistry at the University of Illinois in Champaign-Urbana. After her husband, Allen Hansen, completed his PhD. in chemical engineering at the U of I, they moved to Glassboro, NJ in 1990 for his career at Mobil Oil. Her family moved to New Castle in 1998 when she was working at Zeneca Pharmaceuticals in clinical drug supply management. Currently she is president and CEO of a company founded by her and Allen in 2004. Patti is the mother of 2 adult children: Neil Isaac Dingman of St Louis Park, Minnesota and Amy Michelle Armstrong of Bear, DE. She is the grandmother of Michael Armstrong and Lucy Armstrong. Patti joined the church in 2013 because of the love and warmth of the congregation. She feels NCPC is an excellent place for her grandchildren to learn about the Christian religion and community.

Patti loves animals and for the past ten years has been involved in various aspects of dog rescue, including transports from a high kill dog pound using a gas chamber to euthanize animals in Lee County VA to new homes in the Delaware region, walking dogs at the area SPCAs and rescues, fostering dogs while they look for a new family and recuperate from medical issues.

Sandy Wilson: Sandy was born in Connecticut and grew up in Plainville, CT where she lived with her parents and her younger brother, Gary. The family attended the First Baptist Church of Plainville. Sandy was active in the Sunday School and Youth Fellowship. She also participated in Girl Scouts and many school activities. After graduating from High School, she attended Eastern Baptist College (now Eastern University) in St. David's, PA. There she earned an A.B. in Sociology/Anthropology, and met her future husband, Bill Wilson. For a number of years, Bill worked as a pastor in the Mennonite Church and Sandy participated in church life in a variety of ways. During Bill's seminary years, Sandy worked in the seminary library and took a few courses there too.

Sandy's work experience also included doing social casework for the Bureau of Children's Services in Camden, NJ. Later she was employed as a Medical Technologist in hospital laboratories after earning a B.S. degree in Medical Technology from Hood College. Her last position prior to retirement was Hematology Supervisor at Wilson Memorial Hospital in Johnson City, NY, which was within commuting distance of Bill's and her home in Gibson, PA. During that time, Bill worked as a social worker in a psychiatric inpatient hospital in Clarks Summit, PA.

After retiring, Sandy and Bill moved to New Castle (Bill's home town) in July, 2012. Sandy immensely enjoys the city of New Castle and the activities available here. Her interest include knitting, Tai Chi, reading novels, reading history, and taking walks in town and along the river. She is very happy to be a part of the congregation of New Castle Presbyterian where she appreciates the friendliness and welcoming spirit, excellent preaching, worship, and an emphasis on service to others.

Sandy does not have children of her own, but enjoys being an aunt to a nephew named Steve and his wife, who live in North Carolina, and a niece named Joanna and her husband and children who live in California, as does Sandy's brother, Gary, and his wife. Sandy's Mom, Betty Lou McIlwain, is an amazing 90 year old who still lives in her home in Plainville, CT. Her Dad, Rod McIlwain, passed away at age 89 in 2010.

TRUSTEES OF THE CONGREGATION Class of 2017:

Rob Barry: Rob joined New Castle Presbyterian in 1994, shortly after he and his wife Juliann were married here. Rob has just completed a three-year term on the Board of Trustees, and has served as an Usher. After serving in the United States Marine Corps from 1981-1989, he went to work for Printpack, Inc. in New Castle where he is currently a Production Supervisor. Rob enjoys spending time with his family and the great outdoors. Rob and Juliann have four sons -- Joe, Chris, Daniel and Alex, and reside in Bear.

Lyn Briggs: I will be happy to serve NCPD in this new capacity. I have been a deacon, I volunteer for VBS, nursery, and the Spirit of Christmas Committee. I am a member of the Colonial Chimers hand bell choir and served on the pastor nominating committee. I have enjoyed attending worship and social events with fellow members for three decades now. Bob and I live nearby, our daughter Rachel resides in Baltimore.

Carol Mayhew: Carol and her husband Gene joined the New Castle Presbyterian Church in December of 1964. Carol has, over the years, served on the Session, on the Board of Trustees, as Sunday School and Bible School Superintendent, President of the Women's Association and on various other committees of the church and of the Presbytery. She was chair of the 350th Anniversary Celebration Committee and served from 2007-2013 on the Board of Trustees, five of those years as President.

Carol is retired, after working in public education for over 35 years, almost 30 of which were with the State Department of Education in Dover. Gene and Carol's only child Stacy, lives in Swarthmore, PA with her husband J.W. and their four children, Logan, 22, Hart, 20, Luke, 17, and Hunter, 14. NOMINATING COMMITTEE

MEMBERS-AT-LARGE, 2014-15

(nominations from the floor)

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

TRUSTEES OF THE CORPORATION Class of 2017:

In 2014, the Session and Trustees revived the terms of the 1813 Church Charter of Incorporation, which requires five Trustees of the Corporation. The new terms stipulate that these five persons be current members of the Trustees of the Congregation.

Matthew Kim: Matt has been a member at New Castle Presbyterian Church since 2010. Matt has served four years as a trustee and also serves as a Nursery volunteer. Matt lives in Middletown with his wife, Jennifer, and is the proud father of Samuel, 4, and Grace, eighteen months. Matt works at Chesapeake Utilities Corporation in Dover, where he is the Controller. A graduate of Georgetown University with a degree in Accounting, Matt worked in the accounting and finance areas of various multi-national accounting and investment firms in Washington, DC prior to moving to Delaware.

Steve Martin: With his wife, Cynthia Robbins and daughter Katie Martin, began attending in 1999. They lived in New Castle from 1988 to 2007, before moving to Newark to be closer to work. He has ties to Presbyterian traditions going back further. Steve grew up in a small town in Massachusetts. He was raised a Congregationalist, which is sort of a New England equivalent to a Presbyterian. Steve is a Senior Research Scientist at the Center for Drug and Alcohol Studies at the University of Delaware. Steve's research interests are in substance abuse—causes, prevention, and treatment. He is one of the people who started the CREST drug treatment program in the Delaware correctional system, and he directs the surveys of substance abuse and other risk factors that are conducted yearly in Delaware schools. At NCPC, Steve has previously served as an elder and as trustee. He and Cynthia head up the Emmanuel Dining Room program.

Scott Matthews: Scott Matthews is originally from Springfield, Virginia, in the suburbs of Washington, D.C. He grew up in the Presbyterian Church, attending Grace Presbyterian Church in Springfield, and graduated from The Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology in Alexandria, Virginia. He first came to Delaware to attend the University of Delaware as an undergraduate, studying political science, English and French, with travels during his time at Delaware to study at McGill University in Montreal and the University of London. After returning to Virginia to work for a non-profit educational organization, Scott returned to school and received a JD from the University of Virginia School of Law and a MA in English literature from the University of Virginia. Scott and his wife Miranda moved to Delaware in 2000 so Scott could begin work as an associate with the Wilmington law firm of Richards, Layton & Finger, P.A., where he practiced corporate and commercial transactional law until 2009. He is currently employed at Tarabicos Grosso, LLP. After many years of searching for the right church and attending numerous churches of different Christian denominations, mostly closer to their home in Bear, Scott and Miranda joined the Church in 2009 and feel blessed to have found such a welcoming and community-oriented congregation. Scott has served four years on the Trustees as well as cooking for Emmanuel Dining Room, attending Bible Study, and serving on the Resource Development and History Committees. In his spare time Scott enjoys, among other things, travel, reading (primarily literature, history and baseball), and watching college, minor league and major league baseball. He is an avid follower and supporter of the University of Virginia baseball, soccer and lacrosse teams, the University of Delaware baseball and basketball teams, the Wilmington Blue Rocks and the Washington Nationals.

Bruce Raker: My wife, Lisa and I became members of NCPC in 1997 while David Joynt was the Minister. The prior year we had been recruited to sing in the church choir as additional singers by Eileen Dunham. Lisa and I enjoyed adding our voices to the group, and have continued to do so. During my first year as a member, Rev. Joynt asked me to be a trustee. I served as a trustee for the seven years from 1998-2004, and two years in my current term. I served two terms on the Session from 2006-2011, have been a member of the nominating committee and a current member of the worship committee. I am a member of choir, a founding member of a bell group, have served as the church's webmaster and have been active in VBS since 2003. Outside of church, I have been singing with the New Ark Chorale since 1982. I work for the University of Delaware in the MIS department as the IT Director of MIS and this December it will be 29 years of service. I grew up in Newark and have lived in Delaware all my life. When Lisa and I married in December of 1985, we moved to New Castle, where we lived for 18 years. In 2003, we moved back to Newark and now live in Arbour Park. Our daughter Kaitlyn, is 21 years old and finishing her junior year at UD and our son, Christopher is 14 finishing 8th grade at Shue-Medill. You can find me online at <http://udel.edu/~brucer/>

C.J. Seitz: C.J. is a native Delawarean who with his wife Gail became keenly interested in moving to the City when their children – Danielle, Brandon, and Meredith - went off to college. When they learned nine years ago that Lynn and Henry Herndon, a fellow attorney, were selling their house on The Strand, they moved to our community. C.J., a founding partner of the Seitz Ross Aronstam & Moritz law firm in Wilmington, is best known for his work in the United States Supreme Court case New Jersey v. Delaware, where Delaware prevailed in its ownership claims to the Delaware River within the twelve mile circle.

He and Gail joined the Church in 2011 because of the welcoming congregation, our acceptance of the Presbyterian views of Christianity, and the thoughtful sermons and stewardship by its Pastor, Nancy Rowland.

2014 Pentecost Offering

When reflecting upon the role of younger generations in our church, we often say that our children, youths, and young adults are the "future of our church", but they are so much more than that. They are also our present. Here are just a few examples of how:

Twenty-two young adult interns from all over the world are gathering at Urban Promise in Wilmington to serve the needs of the inner-city youth and children. Forty percent of this year's Pentecost Offering has been designated by our Session for this purpose. In July, thousands of young people from across the denomination will descend upon Montreat Conference Center in the mountains of North Carolina for six Youth Conferences, where they will join together as one - in worship, Biblical study and community building as they discern Christ's calling for their lives. Later this fall, a new group of Presbyterian Young Adult Volunteers will leave their homes and face the unfamiliar for a year of dedicated service to others. Mark Moseley of our own presbytery has been serving this past year in Northern Ireland. These and other efforts make great strides toward securing the future of the church by investing in its present as we invest in the development of younger generations. Through the children, youth, and young adults benefiting from your offering, the Spirit is at work today!

Urban Promise Dinner and Summer Camp Supplies

On Tuesday, June 10th, we will be hosting a dinner for the new interns who will be helping to lead programming at the six Urban Promise Summer Camps held in the city of Wilmington. Urban Promise is a ministry that serves children in the inner cities. The Wilmington Branch of Urban Promise provides a summer camp experience. These camps are free to all children and their days are full of a variety of fun activities including: Arts and Crafts, Music, Dance, Games, Bible Adventures and study.

A message from Lori McClain, Urban Promise staff:

Hello Friends! It's a glorious day here in the city!! We are pressing hard toward summer and our 6 awesome, FREE, 6-week camps. Parents stand in line at my desk every day to register children. We are excited to see what God is going to do!

You may be interested to know that we currently have 22 interns signed up from all over the country (Woo Hoo!). Our StreetLeader application event takes place next Tuesday, May 13, where over 100 teens will try out to become 1 of our 35 summer StreetLeaders. Please pray for wisdom.

Our theme for the summer is the Fruit of the Spirit. Our curriculum writers are having a great time planning art projects, games, science, and Bible lessons around the fruits of LOVE, JOY, PEACE, PATIENCE, KINDNESS, GOODNESS, GENTLENESS, FAITHFULNESS, AND SELF-CONTROL (against such there is no law). What a privilege.

Thank you for your support and generosity throughout the years to make these camps possible!

These interns come from all over the United State and occasionally from other countries. They donate their time and talents. Churches like ours are encouraged to open their doors and offer a place for sharing, prayer, and reflection. We also provide a meal for these dedicated young men and women. Tuesday night may be difficult for many of you, but please consider donating something to the meal. We need meat dishes, salads, vegetables and desserts. (Please, no food with nuts) If you make or donate something ahead of time that needs to be cooked, please put it in the CE building refrigerator or freezer with instructions and Ray Snyder and I will cook it for you. There will be twenty interns arriving for dinner.

If you are unable to contribute food, please consider donating index cards (sizes 3x5, 4x6, or 5x8). There is a collection box in the front hallway of the CE building. If you would like to join us for dinner and meet these young men and women, please tell Ray Snyder or myself and we will add you to the list.
